

What's new in April

Europe's Leading Tourism Development Project 2018

Explore Latvia slowly

This certifies that the holder has been nominated for this award in the 25th annual World Travel Awards.

LIAA tourism marketing campaign nominated for the prestigious international award "World Travel Awards"

For the 25th time the most outstanding achievements in the global tourism and hospitality sector will be established, and this year the joint digital marketing project of the LIAA Tourism Department and the Nordic Travel Bloggers will be among the best in Europe.

READ MORE

More news from April

The number of stays for the night in Riga tourism accommodations exceeded 2.6 million in 2017

The capital of Latvia, known as the hidden pearl, becomes more and more popular.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE In G+ Twitter f

Internationally renowned “Skyforger” is calling for a grand concert

Metal music lovers can prepare for real celebrations - the festival "Zobens un Lemess" promises unforgettable impressions.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE In G+ Twitter f

Tukums — the city of roses

Tukums has been named one of the most fascinating tourism destinations by the European Destinations of Excellence or EDEN 2017 competition.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE In G+ Twitter f

New & tasty tourist destination – Riga Beer District

There are available at least 100 “craft” beers made in Latvia and the Baltic states, and anyone can try them during guided tours or individually.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE in G+ Twitter Facebook