

Winter wonderland at Bled

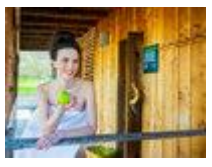

Prepare for winter adventures in Slovenia

We have marched into a new year and are now facing new challenges.

In Slovenia, the year 2017 is marked by the anniversary of the death of the greatest Slovenian architect, Jože Plečnik. We will join in with the celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, the event which significantly influenced the issuing of the first books written in the Slovenian language. The town of Ptuj is already getting ready for the Kurentovanje Festival, one of the greatest Slovenian ethnological events and one that is not to be missed.

When in Slovenia, treat yourself to special types of pampering and restore your energy. You will be tempted by pristine white nature to be active in the snow. Choose one of the Slovenian ski resorts and enjoy a great time in the snow!
