

TOP 10 FASCINATING NATIONAL PARKS IN BRAZIL

Waterfalls, canyons, wells filled with crystalline water, engraved in trails surrounded by vegetation. Explore everything that makes the national parks in Brazil so appealing. Environmental preservation areas incepted to prevent the degradation of ecosystems, the national parks are jam-packed with attractions that suit tourists who love nature and adventure. Tourism-review.com presents the best Brazilian national parks.

Read the whole story

TOURIST TAXES AROUND EUROPE – IN BELGIUM AND ITALY TOURISTS PAY THE MOST

An ever-increasing number of European cities or regions are applying tourist taxes to travelers who stay overnight in their lodgings, albeit with large differences in the amount charged depending on the tourist destinations.

Read the whole story

PORTUGUESE TOURISM HAS A NEW GOAL: DOUBLING ITS REVENUE BY 2027

The Portuguese government wants to take full advantage of the recent euphoria that tourism has been experiencing and set new and even more ambitious goals – to achieve a growth of 4% on an annual basis by 2017.

Read the whole story

TOURISM IN BARCELONA GENERATES 18% OF COMMERCIAL REVENUE

Tourism in Barcelona is an important source of income for many companies. What had been mere conjecture until now, has now been confirmed by an exhaustive study commissioned by the trade association “Barcelona Oberta” which correlates numbers with the economic impact of tourists' purchases in the city.

Read the whole story

EQUESTRIAN TOURISM IS GALLOPING BACK TO POPULARITY IN FRANCE

There is a new trend in tourism in France, a trend towards the “authentic”, a trend towards rediscovering nature and a slower pace of life. Equestrian tourism in France is in full swing at the moment.

Read the whole story

NUMBER OF TOURISTS IN MOROCCO RISING UP

Tourism in Morocco reported positive numbers for January. The number of tourists increased by 10% (to 652,000 visitors) compared to the same period in 2016, according to the Moroccan Tourism Observatory.

Read the whole story

CHINESE TOURISTS SPEND MORE IN GERMANY

Chinese tourists in Germany spend on average 513 euros per day in Munich, which is more than the Arab visitors (367 euros), according to a recent survey by the Bavarian Trade Association. Visitors from China do not look for luxury goods only, but also cover medium-sized shops and department stores.

Read the whole story

TOURISM IN UKRAINE TO FOCUS MORE ON FOREIGN TOURISTS

Ukraine has been going through a political crisis in the past years. But despite general instability and conflicts, the country hopes in recovery. According to Ukraine's Vice Prime Minister, as well as the Minister of Economy, Stepan Kubiv, 13.6 million foreigner tourists visited the country in 2016. Kubiv is optimistic about the future and expects better numbers for tourism in Ukraine.

Read the whole story