

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

TOURISM IN AFRICA IS GROWING THE MOST

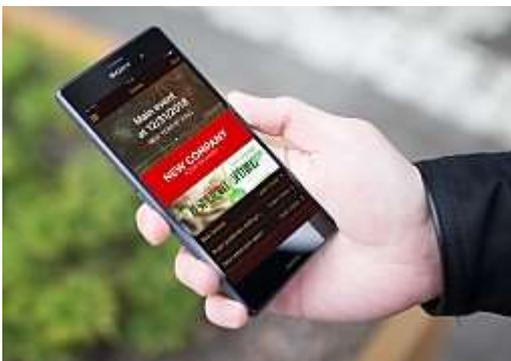

Tourism in Africa has been dynamically growing. 300 million international tourist arrivals were recorded in the months of July and August 2017, according to the World Tourism Barometer, which is a record numbers....

Read More
on our website

DESKBELL MAKES A LOCAL CONNECTION

When it comes to booking a hotel and planning a vacation or business trip everything is local. When you go online to book a place to stay that is the first step. Naturally potential hotel guests have a lot of questions...

Read More
on our website

TOURISM REVIEW MEDIA IS DIVERSIFYING ITS SERVICES

Tourism Review Media has proudly announced that it has diversified and expand its services to help tourism industry professionals around the world and become a one-stop solution provider for the tourism industry.

Read More
on our website

RUSSIAN TOURISM TO SLOW DOWN IN 2018

The market of organized tourism, where the volume of bookings increased by more than 30% this year, is unlikely to show the same growth in 2018. According to experts' estimates, the growth rate of the Russian...

Read More
on our website

BLACK FRIDAY COMES TO THE TOURISM SECTOR

Airlines, hotel chains and travel agencies took advantage of November 24, the Black Friday, and the next days to offer great discounts. It is a long-standing tradition that has been imported from the United States...

Read More
on our website

BERLIN WANTS TO ATTRACT TOURISTS TO ITS OUTSKIRTS

Berlin authorities announced a new tourism concept for the German capital. Their plan is to attract tourists more to the outskirts of the city which also have a lot to offer. Another part of the project is to focus...

Read More
on our website

SHOPPING TOURISM IS THE GOLD MINE FOR ITALIAN CITIES

As the new edition of Shopping Tourism Italian Monitor reveals, shopping is one of the main reasons for tourists to visit Florence, Milan, Rome, Turin and Venice.

Read More
on our website

MEXICAN TOWN THREATENED BY TOURISM

More and more holiday destinations around Europe face the negative effects of mass tourism. Palma de Mallorca, Barcelona, Venice, and Athens – these are some of the cities whose local authorities are forced to...

Read More
on our website

THAI TOURISM GENERATED EUR55 BILLION UNTIL OCTOBER

The Thai tourism industry authorities announced positive tourism trend. The number of international tourist arrivals amounted to 2 million in October – up 21% compared to last year.

Read More
on our website

CONGRESS TOURISM IN PRAGUE BRINGS BILLIONS TO THE BUDGET

Congress tourism in the Czech capital Prague generates revenues of 4.4-5.2 billion Czech crowns (EUR 173-204 million) per year. It is estimated that only 3.9% of this sum returns to the budget of the city – 170...

Read More
on our website

www.tourism-review.com

