

Tourism Review
NEWS
Respected Voice of Tourism

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

TOP 5 TIPS FOR SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS TRAVEL

Every year, more than 500 million domestic business trips are made in the U.S. alone, massively polluting the environment. Even though sustainable business is a high priority for most companies, the opportunities...

Read More
on our website

BRUSSELS REGION KEEPS DEVELOPING ITS MICE MARKET

The MICE market is no laughing matter in the Brussels Region. For the capital, which claims to be the world's leading host city for international association gatherings to the very end of its nails, this form of...

Read More
on our website

CRIMEAN BRIDGE TO OPENED SOONER THAN EXPECTED

Crimean bridge will be the largest bridge in Europe. More than 10 thousand builders are working at the site to construct the 19-kilometre-long bridge connecting the Crimean Peninsula with the Russian mainland, which...

Read More
on our website

CITY OF DUBROVNIK FIGHTS OVERTOURISM AMID INDUSTRY GROWTH

Dubrovnik has been going through a good tourism year. In January and February, the Croatian city registered increases in visitors. However, overall the country struggles to attract tourists during the winter season....

Read More
on our website

TURESPAÑA AIMS TO REACH 1,500 MILLION EUROS FROM TOURISM REVENUES

In 2017, the Spanish economy received 172,900 million euros in tourism revenues - including direct, indirect and induced effects. This amount represent a 5.7% increase over 2016, representing 14.9% of the Gross...

Read More
on our website

BERLIN TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF HOTELS

More than 143 thousand hotel beds are on offer in the German capital. Their number however will soon cross the 160 thousand mark.

Read More
on our website

TOURISM SECTOR IN TURIN DECLINING

The tourism sector in Turin is on a decline, despite Italy as a whole holding on to the European trend of tourism growth with an approximate 3.5% increase.

Read More
on our website

NUMBER OF VISITORS BEATS RECORDS IN NYC

The number of visitors in New York City exceeded all expectations last year, despite concerns about the presidential election of Donald Trump.

Read More
on our website

