

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

CHINESE TOURISTS AND THEIR SPECIAL TRAVEL BEHAVIORS

They are usually in large groups. They wear backpacks on their stomach as a form of protection against pickpockets and take numerous selfies everywhere. In hot temperatures, they have umbrellas and wear long-sleeved...

Read More
on our website

ANTI-TOURISM MOVEMENT RISING AROUND EUROPEAN CITIES

14 European cities, located mostly in Spain, have created a European network against mass tourism. The anti-tourism movement that rejects mass tourism is weaving a network to coordinate their actions and to condemn...

Read More
on our website

MEXICO: MEDICAL TOURISM RELIES ON THE U.S.

The professional care of the Mexico's health sector and savings of up to 80% in medical procedures could be the spark needed to ignite the industry.

Read More
on our website

WHO ARE THE BIGGEST TRAVEL SPENDERS?

Virtually all issuing markets reported an increase in tourism spending in 2017 according to the UNWTO Global Tourism Barometer. However, who are the biggest travel spenders?

Read More
on our website

CHERNOBYL AND THE RISE OF NUCLEAR TOURISM

32 years ago, Chernobyl witnessed the worst nuclear accident in history. In recent years, it has become a popular tourist attraction for the nuclear tourism enthusiasts. Visitors from all over the world now flock...

Read More
on our website

TOURISM INDUSTRY OF REUNION ISLAND GENERATED 1 BILLION EUROS

A recent study by the Fédération Réunionnaise du Tourisme and Ipsos Océan Indien made it possible to measure the impact of tourism industry on Reunion's economy. Between March 2017 and February 2018, domestic...

Read More
on our website

EUROPE APPLIES A BAN ON SMOKING IN CARS

Starting on May 1st, Austria applies the ban on smoking in cars, if children or adolescents under the age of 18 are in it (excluding taxis). In case of violations, a penalty of up to 100 euros is set. In case of...

Read More
on our website

WE HAVE PLANNED YOUR DAY LONG DATE WITH VIENNA

Vienna in Austria is one of the most visited tourist destinations in the world. With a rich culture that boasts of the magnificence of the past, Vienna is a beautiful destination for the tourists who are quite interested...

Read More
on our website

BRAZIL: DOLLAR IS ON THE RISE AND AFFECTING TOURISM

The dollar is on the rise and is already affecting tourism of Brazil. Last week, the dollar reached a mark of R$ 3,486, the highest since 13 June 2016. For some international trips, the demand for outbound travel...

Read More
on our website

EGYPTIANS WHO BOTHER TOURISTS MAY BE FINED

Last week, the Egyptian Parliament adopted a law that intends to protect the tourism industry, which is an important part of the country's economy.

Read More
on our website

www.tourism-review.com

