

Tourism Review
NEWS
Respected Voice of Tourism

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

TOP 7 EXTRAORDINARY LIBRARIES IN EUROPE

For centuries, libraries have served as a sacred place to preserve knowledge and share it with the contemporaries. Even today, they are still considered temples of knowledge and intellectual refuges. In addition...

Read More
on our website

SPANISH REVENUES PER PURCHASE FOR NON-EU TOURISTS DROP 9%

Spain saw its revenue fall by 9% in purchase expenses by non-EU tourists in just the first four months of the year, according to the first edition of the 2018 Shopping Tourism Barometer issued by Global Blue, an...

Read More
on our website

SOFIA – NOT ONLY A LOW-COST DESTINATION

Since the start of low-cost airlines in Sofia, the number of foreign visitors in the Bulgarian capital has exploded. However, the city still struggles to find its place between the low-cost booze nights and the...

Read More
on our website

EUROPEAN CAPITALS FACE AIR POLLUTION PROBLEMS – PART II

Last week, Tourism-Review.com brought you the first part of an article focusing on the air pollution problems of many European capitals. Berlin, Brussels, London – they all have recently launched various projects...

Read More
on our website

ECONOMISTS AWAIT AN UPTURN IN SWISS TOURISM

The winter season was already a success, now a strong summer season is to follow. According to economic researchers, the situation in Swiss tourism is as good as it has been for many years. Foreign tourists, in...

Read More
on our website

HOTEL 4.0 – WHAT THE HOTEL OF THE FUTURE LOOKS LIKE

A long queue at check-in, hotel rooms cooled to refrigerator temperatures, and an abrupt end to a good night sleep. Such a trip is not very relaxing. Digital technologies could turn many hotel rooms into a feel-good...

Read More
on our website

INBOUND TOURISM IN LITHUANIA GROWING FAST

Foreign tourists arrive to Lithuania from the beginning of the year. Most travelers are coming from neighboring Russia and Belarus. The data show that the inbound tourism of the country is substantially increasing.

Read More
on our website

CUBA BUILDS 674 NEW HOTEL ROOMS IN HERITAGE CITIES

Cuba is boasting 674 new tourist accommodations that are currently under development and will expand the hotel availability of the island's heritage sites, as well as helping local offers in a segment known as tourism...

Read More
on our website

THAILAND REGISTERS INTL ARRIVAL RECORD AMID MEDICAL TOURISM BOOM

Last year was a record year for medical tourism in Thailand. 35.38 million foreign tourists arrived in the country. All in all, they spent about 1.8 trillion baht. This year, however, things should be even better,...

Read More
on our website

