
What's new in July

Riga's first ever International Biennial of Contemporary Art

From 2 June to 28 October, Riga and Jurmala are host to the first ever Riga International Biennial of Contemporary Art (RIBOCA) with the theme Everything Was Forever, Until It Was No More.

READ MORE

More news from July

New offer for nature photographers

Starting this year, nature photographers and fellow enthusiasts can experience a new type of workshop in Latvia – Photography from a floating hide. Specialist tour operator Dabas tūres runs the workshops twice a year during the spring and autumn bird migration periods.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE In G+ Twitter f

Visit Baltic Manors campaign launched

From 24th May to 16th September, 131 historic manor houses and castles in the three Baltic States will open their doors to visitors. The associations of castles and manors in Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia have joined forces to honour the idea of the Baltic Way.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE In G+ Twitter f

10 most instagrammable places in Latvia

Explore some of Latvia's most photogenic locations! Thanks to some of Latvia's most popular nature and lifestyle photographers for recommending their favourite places to photograph.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE In G+ Twitter f

NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
PLAN 2020

EUROPEAN UNION

European Regional Development Fund

I N V E S T I N G I N Y O U R F U T U R E