

RIGA CITY GUIDE: WHERE TO EAT, DRINK SHOP AND STAY IN THE LATVIAN CAPITAL

Latvia in the media

In our round up of recent media coverage, Vogue, The Telegraph, Travel and Leisure, and further publications hand out compliments to Latvia, deeming Riga the new arts hub of the Baltics and more.

READ MORE

More August updates

August and September events round-up

With summer still in full swing, there's no shortage of outdoor events to consider including in a Latvia itinerary, from music festivals to celebrating the anniversary of a narrow gauge railway. Here's a round up of what's coming up in August and September.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE

New gardens for Riga residents and visitors

ESENA Pārdaugava Gardens on Dzirciema iela on the left bank of the River Daugava are open to visitors looking to relax, as well as indulge in active pursuits, organise events and even do a spot of gardening.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE

Museum of Energy open Saturdays and Sundays in summer

In the summer season, the Museum of Energy in Ķegums welcomes visitors every day, including Saturdays and Sundays, and an English speaking guide is available. The museum provides insight into energy production processes and their history in Latvia. Upon prior booking, visitors are invited to explore the fully functional hydroelectric power plant.

OPEN

SHARE THIS ARTICLE

NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
PLAN 2020

EUROPEAN UNION
European Regional Development Fund

INVESTING IN YOUR FUTURE