NEWS FROM
SLOVENIA

MY WAY OF GETTING INSPIRED.

It is said that spring is the season of new beginnings. In this newsletter, we reveal some great projects, which have been launched and which will definitely add on the reasons why you should put Slovenia on your bucket list.

This includes a futuristic refurbishment of Central Hotel in Ljubljana and Park Café, home of the famous original Bled cream layer cakes. If we move to Pomurje region, April has also been significant: Expano also officially opened its doors. An extra treat is an article about Padna, the charming village in the Slovenian Istria, which this weekend hosts The Olive Oil and Chard Festival.

A FUTURISTIC APPEARANCE OF THE CENTRAL HOTEL

In April, the refurbished Central Hotel in Ljubljana opened its doors. Here are 15 short facts, which will make you want to stay there.
