

Dorchester Collection Introduces #DCmoments Food Guides

Highlighting the most instagrammable culinary hotspots in London, Paris, Milan, Rome and Los Angeles

Following the success of the 2019 Shorty Award-winning #DCmoments City Guides, Dorchester Collection is launching its #DCmoments Food Guides, a new digital amenity for guests to discover the ultimate food destinations in Dorchester Collection hotel cities. The specially tailored guides provide the perfect accompaniment to a Dorchester Collection stay, with a variety of insider suggestions for all occasions.

To develop the guides, Dorchester Collection partnered with renowned food and travel digital content creator, James Thompson, a Sydney-born, London-based photographer who created the @food feels Instagram account five years ago. With a love of everything from street food to Michelin-starred dining, James has a vast knowledge of the global culinary scene. Speaking about the collaboration, he said “food and beverage are taken very seriously at Dorchester Collection, which is why it’s such an honour to work with their team on the #DCmoments Food Guides and help their hotel guests navigate the incredible culinary scenes surrounding the legendary hotels.”

Annalisa Maestri, global communications manager at Dorchester Collection, said: “We are delighted to be partnering with James who has helped our guides convey the true spirit of culinary exploration. Instagram has had an undeniable effect on the way in which guests want to experience local cuisines. From fine dining restaurants to local cafés, we want to create unforgettable dining experiences for our guests which they can photograph and share on their social media profiles. The #DCmoments Food Guides include recommendations of Instagram-worthy gastronomic destinations which are a delight both to the palate and to the eye, as well as details on how to access them. We want guests to have an epicurean experience filled with local insider knowledge when staying with us.”

#DCmoments Food Guides point guests to precisely where they should go to explore and indulge in the local food scene. Available immediately to guests and accessible via complimentary download from the website, the new #DCmoments Food Guides for London, Paris, Milan, Rome and Los Angeles immerse guests in some of the most sought-after food scenes. With a combined 10 Michelin stars and partnerships with world renowned chefs including Alain Ducasse and Wolfgang Puck, curating exceptional culinary experiences is an integral part of Dorchester Collection. The #DCmoments Food Guides is a natural extension of this creative spirit and emphasises the dedication to enhancing guests’ experiences beyond the walls of the legendary hotels.
