

Tourism Review
NEWS
Respected Voice of Tourism

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

PASSENGERS WAITING: AIRLINES GRADUALLY RELAUNCH THE INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS

Despite being hit hard by the coronavirus crisis, some airlines are trying to organize themselves to deliver an adapted flight schedule in May and the following weeks. Tourism Review provides an update on the airlines...

Read More
on our website

HOLIDAY BONUS AND OTHER INNOVATIVE MEASURES TO REVIVE ITALIAN TOURISM

The tourism industry was hit hard by the Coronavirus pandemic and Italy is one of the countries affected most, seeing as its economy is heavily dependent on the sector. After difficult months and a lengthy lockdown,...

Read More
on our website

SPAIN: RURAL TOURISM REPORTS A REBOUND

Once the de-escalation program kicks in, tourism will be the industry that will take the longest to recover, to the extent that Spanish hotels won't be opening "until the end of June, beginning of July" due...

Read More
on our website

WELCOME TO VIRUS-FREE AIR TRAVEL

Be at the airport four hours before departure? A new job "aircraft janitor"? No more in-flight magazines? The new flight experience that experts have in mind does not look very inviting - and the airlines are doing...

Read More
on our website

HOW THE CORONAVIRUS WILL CHANGE THE HOTEL GUEST BEHAVIOR?

The Coronavirus crisis has significantly affected the lives of billions of people around the world in the last couple of months. Tourism has come to a standstill, borders have been partially closed, air traffic...

Read More
on our website

TRAVEL VOUCHERS - AIRLINES NOT HAPPY ABOUT THE EU DECISIONS

The EU Commission recommends that travel vouchers for trips that had to be cancelled because of the coronavirus should be valid for at least one year. According to this recommendation, airlines and travel providers...

Read More
on our website

ASIA BEGINS TO REDISCOVER TRAVEL ... VERY SLOWLY

The Asia Pacific region has started getting the coronavirus outbreak under control and has begun putting measures in place to ease traveling and reopen borders. Potential tourists rediscover travel and the options...

Read More
on our website

AIRBUS A220 – THE STAR OF THE POST-CORONAVIRUS TRAVEL WORLD

The A220, one of Airbus' narrow-body planes, is not only cheaper and has fewer seats, but it is also capable of flying as far as the B737 or A320, becoming the ideal aircraft for the post-coronavirus travel.

Read More
on our website

EU EXTENDS THE CURRENT BORDER CLOSURE UNTIL 15 JUNE 2020

The European Commission has invited the Schengen Member States and Schengen associated countries to extend the temporary restriction on non-essential travel to the EU by a further 30 days until 15 June.

Read More
on our website

COUNTRIES DISCUSS CORONA CORRIDOR TO SAVE TOURISM

On May 13, the European Commission agreed on recommendations to gradually reopen borders following the de-escalation plan with one industry in mind: tourism.

Read More
on our website

www.tourism-review.com

