

Tourism Review
NEWS
Respected Voice of Tourism

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

AIR TRAFFIC IN EUROPE: THE SCENARIOS AND FORECASTS UP TO 2024 Video

One of the biggest losers of the current Covid crisis is the tourism industry and, in particular, the aviation industry, which has seen a massive halt in activity in the last couple of months due to extensive travel...

Read More
on our website

CONFINEMENT: GDPR COMPLIANCE FACILITATES REMOTE WORK

According to experts, businesses complying with the GDPR have less and less difficulty in keeping track of their risks, and therefore, in this context of confinement, to work properly. Travel companies with already...

Read More
on our website

MIGRANTS IN TOURISM SUFFER MORE THAN OTHERS DURING THE CORONA CRISIS

10% of all jobs worldwide are – or were until six months ago – dependent on tourism. Among these 330 million workers, a third could lose their jobs due to the Corona crisis, including a particularly large number...

Read More
on our website

HOTELS OFFER REMOTE WORK SPACE IN THEIR FACILITIES

Hotel companies have found an alternative to give way to common spaces and generate activity in the absence of tourism – by offering space for remote work. Major chains, such as the French Accor and the American...

Read More
on our website

GERMAN TRAVEL AND HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY IN CRITICAL SITUATION Video

The travel and hospitality industry in Germany is expecting another huge loss of income due to anti-corona regulations this month. Losses in sales are estimated to reach 10.2 billion euros.

Read More
on our website

ITALY TO SUPPORT CULTURE AND TOURISM WITH EUR 9 BILLION Video

The Italian government will release €9 billion by the end of 2020 to support culture and tourism.

Read More
on our website

TOURISM IN MEXICO LIKELY NOT TO RECOVER OVER THE WINTER SEASON Video

According to experts, the winter season will not mean the recovery of tourism in Mexico. Last summer, the numbers of trips did not increase as expected because many countries were still struggling with coronavirus...

Read More
on our website

TOURISM IN BUENOS AIRES: GUIDED TOURS FINALLY RELAUNCHED Video

The government of Buenos Aires continues to advance in its efforts to reactivate tourism amid the coronavirus pandemic. A resolution was published in the Official Gazette announcing the approved protocol for the...

Read More
on our website

POST-COVID TOURISM IN TUNISIA: REINVENT OR PERISH...

While a relative wind of optimism had blown on tourism during the three summer months, the violence of the second wave of the Covid-19 threatens to bring everything down; bad figures follow day after day, without...

Read More
on our website

SPANISH TOURISM BOOSTED BY GENEROUS BUDGET, ECONOMIC SLOWDOWN EXPECTED ANYWAY

The optimistic figures for Spanish tourism pointing to a rebound during the third quarter extinguished following the slowdown due to the newest lockdowns imposed after the second wave of COVID-19. Spanish tourism...

Read More
on our website

www.tourism-review.com

