

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

EU COUNTRIES WELCOME VACCINATED TRAVELERS WITHOUT RESTRICTIONS

More and more countries are relatively easy to travel to again, which is a good sign regarding the upcoming summer holidays.

Read More
on our website

GREECE: TENSIONS LINKED TO THE NEW LABOR LAW WORRY TOURISM PROFESSIONALS

The streets of Athens are again in turmoil, with new demonstrations taking place last week in the Greek capital. The demonstrations were held on the sidelines of the second review of the new labor law. Tourism professionals...

Read More
on our website

TRAVELING TO NORTHERN EUROPE: ONLY ICELAND WILL ATTRACT SOME TOURISTS

Currently, business with Northern Europe is anything but easy. Norway and Finland are closed to conventional tourists, Denmark has only recently relaxed its restrictions, and although Sweden can actually be visited...

Read More
on our website

SPONTANEOUS VACATIONS ARE BOOMING IN AUSTRIA

According to the Europ Assistance (EA) holiday barometer, this year 61 percent of Austrians are planning a holiday again; in 2020, due to the pandemic only 41 percent of Austrians traveled. The study also stated...

Read More
on our website

DISNEYLAND PARIS OPENS BUT LACKS INTERNATIONAL VISITORS Video

Disneyland Paris, the first tourist destination of the Old Continent, reopened its doors last Thursday. Mandatory booking of tickets on the Internet, wearing masks, suspension of the parade and hugs with Mickey...

Read More
on our website

AIRBNB SPENDS A FORTUNE TO SMOOTH OUT UNPLEASANT STAYS Video

Born between 2007 and 2008 from the idea of two students who decided to use the web to rent a small space of their home, Airbnb has been able to collect impressive success and carving out a place in the perception...

Read More
on our website

THE FUTURE OF TOURISM – TECHNOLOGY IS CRUCIAL TO PREDICT FURTHER DEVELOPMENT

No one can predict the future. However, forecasts using statistical information can be used. The most effective way to collect relevant data on the future of tourism is the use of modern technologies.

Read More
on our website

HELPFUL TIPS FOR SLOW TRAVEL BEGINNERS

While it is true that experts believe that after the pandemic, mass tourism will continue to gain momentum and a drastic change in tourist behavior seems unlikely, during the last couple of months the popularity...

Read More
on our website

DOLCE VITA: NEW LUXURY TRAINS TO SERVE ITALY'S TOURIST PEARLS

Italy's railroads are planning new luxury trains that will take tourists on multi-day trips through the country in elegant carriages starting in 2023.

Read More
on our website

DOMESTIC TOURISM IN PERU REOPENS WITH A CAMPAIGN

Before the pandemic, domestic tourism in Peru was the third most important industry for the country's economy, right behind mining and agriculture. While still severely impacted by the coronavirus, it now sees...

Read More
on our website

www.tourism-review.com

