

Adventure in the heart of the Far North: PONANT launches sales for Summer 2023

Spitsbergen, Greenland, Iceland, North America and the Russian Arctic are just some of the destinations offered by PONANT, the reference for Expedition Voyages aboard small yachts, which is launching sales of its Arctic cruises for Summer 2023.

On the programme: discovering the wildlife, sailing among icebergs, volcanoes and glaciers, meeting local peoples, sailing through the legendary Northeast Passage or an adventure into the very heart of America's Great Lakes. PONANT invites guests to choose from 30 sailings and immerse themselves in the magic of the Far North.

Review of a few of the most eye-catching itineraries:

"Islands and fjords: from Greenland to Spitsbergen"

PONANT invites guests on an exceptional voyage along the east coast of Greenland to the majestic lands of Spitsbergen on this exclusive 13-day cruise. Departing from Reykjavik, this cruise heads for Greenland's east coast and Ammassalik Island to discover Inuit culture and meet the locals whose lives in this remote region are rooted in tradition.
