

Tourism Review
NEWS
Respected Voice of Tourism

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

TOP 7 AZTEC AND MAYAN RUINS IN MEXICO

Notorious for its gorgeous beaches, Mexico has full-fledged resorts that attract a large proportion of tourists who want to spend time relaxing and having fun in the country. Moreover, it is a country full of history,...

Read More
on our website

VACCINATION GAP SERIOUSLY IMPACTS GLOBAL TOURISM

The tourism industry is closely interconnected globally. The fact that certain countries are significantly further ahead in vaccination rates is creating new inequalities and preventing global tourism from recovering...

Read More
on our website

CANADA PROMOTES CANNABIS TOURISM UNDER HARSH RESTRICTIONS

Since 2019, the Ontario government's idea seems simple: encourage investors to buy land and grow cannabis, then open the doors and offer tourists an experience like wineries around the world.

Read More
on our website

THE U.S. OPENS COUNTRY BORDERS TO CANADA AND MEXICO

The U.S. will open its country borders to non-mandatory travel from Canada and Mexico in November, according to a new announcement from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS). The stipulation: only individuals...

Read More
on our website

COLOMBIAN TOURISM INDUSTRY BENEFITS FROM FOREIGN INVESTORS

As a part of the economic recovery, ProColombia released details of new Colombian tourism projects with foreign capital that are being developed in the country. According to their calculations and a report from...

Read More
on our website

CRUISE TOURISM IN URUGUAY TO LOSE 70% OF THE TURNOVER

Historically, the Uruguayan ports of Montevideo and Punta del Este received a good number of cruise tourists. For example, between October 2018 and April 2019, a total of 146 cruise ships arrived in the country.

Read More
on our website

SUCCESSFUL SUMMER IS NOT ENOUGH FOR ITALIAN TOURISM AMID COVID-19 CRISIS

The tourism industry worldwide has suffered greatly in the past couple of months due to the Covid-19 pandemic. However, some countries have felt the effects even more, especially those that heavily rely on the tourism...

Read More
on our website

LA PALMA REPORTS HOTEL OCCUPANCY RATE OF LESS THAN 15% DUE TO LAVA RIVER

Hundreds of residents on the Spanish island of La Palma left their homes last week as a new river of lava from the erupting volcano threatens to engulf another neighborhood on its possible route to the Atlantic...

Read More
on our website

AWARD: THE MOST BEAUTIFUL VILLAGES IN EUROPE REVEALED

The Covid pandemic has had many negative effects on various aspects of people's lives. However, one of its positive effects is the growing popularity of off-the-beaten-path destinations, sustainable travel, and...

Read More
on our website

SOUTH ASIA NEEDS CHINESE TOURISTS BUT THE BORDERS ARE CLOSED

Countries in South Asia are announcing one after another the return of visitors, after a year and a half of border closures. Chinese tourists are being attracted to various destinations the most. Does it show a...

Read More
on our website

www.tourism-review.com

