

---

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

---

TOP 7 STUNNING NATURAL SITES IN ICELAND

Fiery, extreme, bubbling. Iceland is not a destination like the others. It is an experience in itself. You sail among unreal icebergs, you explore on foot the second largest glacier in Europe and you are amazed...

Read More
on our website

---

RUSSIAN TOURISTS ALTER BOOKING PLATFORMS AMID MARKET TRANSFORMATION

Russia's economy is undergoing drastic changes during its invasion of Ukraine. Inevitably, this has also affected the tourism market, consumer behavior, potential summer destinations as well as prospects.

Read More
on our website

HOW TO PROVIDE THE BEST WLAN EXPERIENCES FOR HOTEL GUESTS

How do you ensure that the hotel guests enjoy WLAN (wireless local area network) which is stable and powerful in all rooms? There are two things to consider.

Read More
on our website

---

WAR IN UKRAINE: CONSEQUENCES FOR THE GERMAN TRAVEL INDUSTRY

While many travel restrictions have been lifted around Europe, a new threat to the growth of the industry emerged – the war in Ukraine. Several tourism experts stated their view on the consequences of the situation...

Read More
on our website

---

SPANISH TOURISM EMPLOYS 5.7% LESS WORKERS THAN BEFORE THE PANDEMIC

The number of workers in tourism activities affiliated to Social Security reached 2.31 million last February, according to data provided by Turespaña. This is 5.7% less than in February 2020, before the COVID-19...

Read More
on our website

CAMBODIA LIFTS ALL TRAVEL RESTRICTIONS

Cambodia is opening its borders to vaccinated travelers who no longer need to undergo any pre-departure and arrival tests and are no longer subject to quarantine. In addition, obtaining tourist visas at Phnom Penh...

Read More
on our website

PERU: DOMESTIC TOURISM GROWING DYNAMICALLY WHILE INTL TRAVEL NOT SO FAST

"Several changes are still needed to revitalize the sector," said Carlos Canales, president of the National Chamber of Tourism.

Read More
on our website

EUROPEAN AIRLINES AND AIRPORTS DROPPING FACE MASK REQUIREMENTS

After two years, Europe is slowly preparing for the post-Covid-19 era. Many countries on the continent are lifting mask requirements on their territories, however, things are more complicated in the context of international...

Read More
on our website

---

AUSTRALIA TO ALLOW INTERNATIONAL CRUISES AGAIN FROM APRIL

In February, Australia opened its borders to international tourists for the first time. Now, cruise ships are to enter the country again from April 17, 2022.

Read More
on our website

---

IS HUNGARIAN TOURISM STARTING TO PICK UP?

The number of guest nights in commercial accommodation establishments in Hungary rose 446% to 951,000 in January, though from a low base influenced by travel restrictions due to the pandemic, the Central Statistical...

Read More
on our website

CUBA'S TOURISM GOAL 2022: 2.5 MILLION TOURISTS

Cuba is confident of maintaining its objective to receive 2.5 million tourists by the end of 2022, after quadrupling foreign tourist arrivals in January and despite the possible repercussions of the war in Ukraine.

Read More
on our website

www.tourism-review.com

