

Tourism Review
NEWS
Respected Voice of Tourism

Weekly Travel Industry Insight

SUMMER TOURISM SEASON IN AUSTRIA ALMOST AT PRE-CRISIS LEVEL

"The current tourism balance sheet shows the popularity of Austria as a summer destination and thus above all the competitiveness of our offer and the strength of domestic tourism. With 77.88 million overnight stays,

Read More
on our website

GLOBAL PROBLEMS AFFECT THAI TOURISM

Thai tourism is expected to be affected by recession, inflation, the cost-of-living crisis and rising travel costs from the second quarter of next year, warned the Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT). The industry...

Read More
on our website

GERMAN INBOUND TOURISM: POSITIVE RESULTS AND FOCUS ON SUSTAINABILITY

The international travel industry confirms a significant recovery of German inbound tourism for 2022. This is the key finding of the latest Travel Industry Expert Panel of the German National Tourist Board (GNTB).

Read More
on our website

INDONESIAN DREAM ISLANDS TO BE AUCTIONED OFF FOR HOSPITALITY SECTOR

In a few days, a true paradise of turquoise lagoons, immense white sand beaches and tropical forests will be up for sale. Between December 8 and 14, Sotheby's will auction the Widi reserve, an Indonesian archipelago...

Read More
on our website

TELEWORKING REPRESENTS A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR TOURISM SECTOR

Telework options multiplied precipitously during the Covid-19 confinements throughout 2020. During this time, we were forced to abruptly modify our lifestyles and adapt them to what would be a long year of limited...

Read More
on our website

WHEN CHOOSING A HOTEL 80% OF GUESTS USE SOCIAL NETWORKS

Tourism and social networks began their particular love story very early on, which today is consolidated in a solid coexistence based on travel as a source of precious content and inspiration, and social networks...

Read More
on our website

SRI LANKA INCREASES VISA FEES FOR TOURISTS

Travelers have to pay more for their electronic travel authorization to Sri Lanka since December 1, 2022.

Read More
on our website

BRAZILIAN MUSEUMS INCREASINGLY USE INTERACTIVE TOOLS AND ATTRACT MORE TOURISTS

When we think of museums, we think of venues with artworks displayed on the walls or untouchable historical pieces protected by glass. This reality however has been changing! More and more cultural venues, including...

Read More
on our website

URBAN TOURISM TO DOUBLE IN THE NEXT DECADE

Urban tourism, one of the activities most affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, will almost double its impact in the next decade, to be up to 50% above its peak, recorded in 2019, according to the conclusions of a...

Read More
on our website

CREATURES! A BALANCE AND NEW PERSPECTIVES

In our 19th June article, we introduced CREATURES (Promoting Creative Tourism through new Experiential and Sustainable routes), a project that sought to preserve cultural heritage and promote sustainable and experiential...

Read More
on our website

PORTUGUESE TOURISM: A BOOM DURING THE COMING CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

From north to south of the country, including Madeira and the Azores, hotels are getting full, not only with Portuguese visitors, but also with foreign travelers who spend the holiday season in the country. The...

Read More
on our website

STRONG INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF FOREIGN TOURISTS IN TUNISIA

At the end of October 2022, the influx of foreign tourists in Tunisia has recorded real progress compared to the forecasts of an optimistic scenario expecting a decline of 40% compared to 2019.

Read More
on our website

